

LOCALS ONLY – BUNDORAN BAY.

NAME:	Easkey Britton
AGE:	20
OF YEARS SURFING:	14
LOVES:	surfing with my Dad, sister, uncle and cousins at the Peak. A family gathering!
HATES:	blue bottle jellyfish, mozzies, polluted water, aggro surfers and ignorance
FOOD:	banana pancakes and strawberries.
MUSIC:	Local band Boxy, anything with a good pulse and rockin rhythm!
FAVE WAVE:	A reef pass in the middle of the ocean near Viti Levu... Don't believe the hype, The Peak really sucks!
PLACES TRAVELLED:	Oh boy, I'm a wandering nomad for sure! 5 continents, 25 countries... Hawaii, Australia, NZ, Fiji, Tahiti, Morocco, Ecuador, Puerto Rico, Costa Rica, Kenya, South Africa, Nepal...
BEST TRIP:	My last trip is always my best trip! Hangin with the local surf crew and friends in Fiji this year was pretty cool, Hot water, big world class reef passes, diving with sharks, drinking kava...
HOBBIES:	scuba diving, yoga, playing the flute, writing, painting, reading, dancing, surf lifesaving, boxing...
DREAMS:	I dream about surfing in the moonlight a lot and that I can fly...
RESULTS/ACHIEVEMENTS:	2 x Irish National champ 2005 and 2006, 3rd at the Junior Euros 2004, 1 st Animal Beach Ball 2005, 2 nd Croyde BPSA 2006. First Irish person to surf Teahupoo aged 16!
SPONSORS:	Animal, Alder, Etnies and The Green Room Surf Shop.
INSPIRATION:	My Mum and Dad, Rell Sunn, The Dalai Lama and Eddie Aikau.
FAVE SURFER:	Mick Fanning and Sophia Mulanovich.
WHAT BOARD DO YOU RIDE?	5'11x18x21/8 JP

WHAT'S IT LIKE BEING A BUNDORAN LOCAL?

Being a local and a surfgirl is great it means we can take whatever waves we want! The craic is always mighty in the water with the local crew.

ANY ADVICE FOR VISITING SURFERS?

It's the girls who really rule the Peak now!

BEST THING ABOUT BUNDORAN/SURFING IN BUNDORAN?

The waves, the Guinness and the shitty cold weather...

WORST THING ABOUT BUNDORAN/SURFING IN BUNDORAN?

The summer crowds, tiny waves and traffic...

DESCRIBE YOURSELF IN FOUR WORDS:

Blonde blue-eyed independent woman!!!

LAST WORD/FINAL COMMENT?!

Charge it girls!